Jacobean-style house with gardens and a working watermill. A passion for tradition and impressing guests inspired one man to transform a run-down country house and desolate landscape. At the age of 30, the future Lord Fairhaven began to create his first home. Wanting to inspire and surprise visitors, he created a spectacular garden with planting for all seasons and a cosy house in which to entertain. Life revolved around horse racing and shooting, and guests enjoyed 1930s luxury. Enjoy a freshly cooked hot meal, or sit back & relax over a coffee & delicious slice of homemade cake or cream team in our Redwoods restaurant overlooking the Pinetum.

FULL DAY: Coach leaves Trinity 9.30am and return trip leaves 4pm

Visitors never forget their first breath taking vision of Leeds Castle in Kent, rising majestically from the moat as it has done for almost 900 years. Leeds Castle is in Kent, England, 5 miles southeast of Maidstone. A castle has been on the site since 1086. In the 13th century it came into the hands of King Edward I, for whom it became a favourite residence; in the 16th century, Henry VIII used it as a dwelling for his first wife, Catherine of Aragon.

With 500 acres of beautiful parkland and formal gardens, daily activities, free flying falconry displays, spectacular events, special tours and year round attractions.

Leeds Castle is one of the best days out in Kent, you will want to come back time and again!

FULL DAY: Coach leaves Trinity 9am and return trip leaves 4pm

Pilgrims and tourists have been visiting the site of St Edmundsbury Cathedral for over a thousand years. There is no charge for admission but donations are always welcome.

Originally dedicated to St Denys, the Parish Church of St James has grown and developed over the centuries, becoming the Cathedral of the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich in 1914.

Recently the Millennium Project has seen the completion of the building with the addition of a tower, new cloisters and chapels.

Hatfield House in Hertfordshire, just 21 miles north of London, is a fine Jacobean House and Garden in a spectacular countryside setting.

Today, Hatfield House is the home of the 7th Marquess and Marchioness of Salisbury.

In 1611, Robert Cecil, 1st Earl of Salisbury built his fine Jacobean House adjoining the site of the Old Palace of Hatfield. The House was splendidly decorated for entertaining the Royal Court, with State Rooms rich in paintings, fine furniture and tapestries.

If you're looking for somewhere to dine, whether you fancy a relaxing cream tea, a light bite or a delicious meal there is something for everyone at Hatfield House.
